TIME REQUIRED FOR LEGAL ADVERTISING.

[S]ales of Land, etc., by Administrators, Executors or Guardians, are required by law to be held on the first Tuesday in the month, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, at the Court House in the county in which the property is situated. Notices of these sales must be given in a public gazette 40 days previous to the day of sale.

Notices of the sale of personal property must be given in like manner 10 days previous to the day of sale.

Notice to the debtors and creditors of an estate must be published 40 days.

Notice that application will be made to the Court of Ordinary for leave to sell Land, etc., must be published for two months.

Citations for letters of Administration, Guardianship, etc., must be published 30 days; for dismission from Administration, monthly 6 months; for dismission from Guardianship 40 days.

Rules for foreclosure of Mortgage must be published monthly for 4 months; for establishing lost papers for the full space of 3 months; for compelling titles from Executors or Administrators, where bond has been given by the deceased, the full space of three months.

Publications will always be continued according to these, the legal requirements, unless otherwise ordered.

MACON GA.

THIS long and well known Hotel, with its unequalled system, still presents itself to the traveling public.

The House was opened on the 1st of January, 1856, and took at once a prominent position among the "first class" Hotels of the country. It has never been closed since, but it has been steadily increasing in prosperity, till it acknowledges no successful rival in the business in the State.

Recent improvements and refurnishing of the House, which is still in the hands of the Proprietors, have left nothing to be desired by those who love their ease and enjoy the comforts and luxuries of life. The Hotel is admirably situated for the convenience of the travelling public, being situated opposite the Passenger Depot, and but a few steps from the same. It has a retinue of well trained servants in every department, and the Proprietors will spare no pains or expense to sustain the established reputation of the Hotel. Special attention paid to the wants of lady guests, who may sojourn at the House, and none shall go away dissatisfied, if an earnest endeavor to please will secure a liberal share of the public patronage. je16-1f

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.

Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipments to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.

Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:

On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advance seventy-five (75) per cent. of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days, advance fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commision for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.

On Cotton, to be held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent. of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent. per month.

In all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us. MERCER & ANDERSON.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

WITH the advent of another Cotton Season, we renew to our friends and patrons the offer of our service in the storage and sale of their cotton. We have demonstrated the fact by the experience of past seasons, and particularly of the last, that Atlanta is one of the best interior cotton markets of the South. This is due chiefly to her situation; being on the direct route from the producing districts to the large seaport marts, and having the advantage of three routes to New York, via Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk, all of which are freely and satisfactorily used. The importance of Atlanta as a cotton market was, during the last season, acknowledged by the New York buyers, many of whom made extensive purchases which with the local competition enabled us to realize the most satisfactory prices; relatively higher in most instances than could have been obtained by our consignors, by shipments to more distant points.

The members of our firm are all men of large experience in cotton, and well known in the community. Our Warehouse cannot be surpassed, being of large dimensions, completely sheltered, and fire-proof. Every money facility usual in such cases we are prepared to furnish.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, DECEMBER 1.

HARD RUN FOR A POINT.—If Mr. Peters has any solicitude for the $10,000 due in January, let him remember that it is the duty of the present Council to provide for its payment. We think Mr. Peters is "hard up" for points to sustain himself. Quoth Richard: "My kingdom for a horse!"

COUNSELLING FRAUD.—The Intelligencer of this morning, in commenting upon the action of Council "suspending" the municipal election, makes itself particeps criminis to fraud. It says that Council acted "wisely" and "prudently," when it knows very well that there is not the shadow of law for the proposed suspension. The Intelligencer presumes largely upon the stupidity of this community. The people will remember the Intelligencer.

THE INTELLIGENCER AND THE ERA.—These two papers have at last drifted into the same channel, and THE CONSTITUTION stands alone for the Democracy at the capital. To what extent the enemies' gold has influenced this unnatural affiliation and alliance against the Democracy, has not yet transpired, and we are unable to name the amount. Suffice it, that the fact is before us, and we have the painful duty to perform of announcing to the country that our neighbor, friend and able ally has bolted the track, deserted the true faith and leagued with the opposition.

THE CONSTITUTION, though cut off from the patronage of officials, disappointed office-seekers, and antiquated cliques, will stand by its principles and its party, till its masts and spars are shivered, its rudder shipped, and its keel broken, and if it fails to weather the storm, will proudly accept oblivion as a glorious alternative to the base abandonment and betrayal of its cause. It may be that for the want of patronage we shall be compelled to go down beneath the pressure, and if our friends feel no interest in sustaining a Democratic paper in this city, we ought not to be censured if we yield to the necessity they will have forced upon us; but whatever fate befalls us, the worst will be welcomed as a refuge, rather than avoided in dishonor.

MR. PETERS AND THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—Mr. Peters publishes a card in two of the city morning papers declining the nomination for Alderman in the First Ward, which had been given him upon the so-called "Citizens' Ticket." Mr. Peters, of course, had to assign some reason for his declension. 1st. He believes "any election held under existing circumstances will be in conflict with the city charter and the present Constitution of the State, and any Council so elected will be an illegal body." Now, no one knows better than Mr. Peters that to-morrow (Wednesday) is the day fixed by the city charter, as amended, for the holding of the election. How an election so held, in accord with the spirit of the present Constitution of the State, in which negroes shall vote, as other voters who have payed their taxes, subject to the ratification of the Legislature, when it meets in January, will be illegal, is a nice point of law which we presume few persons apart from Mr. Peters will be able to discern. If a Board thus elected would be an illegal one, all acts of the present Board after the term for which it was elected would be alike illegal. In this respect there would not really be any difference. Any act of the present Council after the expiration of the term for which it was elected, would be of equal "doubtful authority," as Mr. Peters is pleased to term it, with corresponding acts of the new Board. The Legislature will promptly remove the "cloud of doubt hanging upon the validity of the existence and acts of the Mayor and Council." Mr. Peters need have no fears upon this score. The "cloud of doubt" has been rather thick and heavy for some years above the Municipal affairs of this city, and whilst it has passed rather heavily on some we have yet been able to withstand the lightning of its keenest shocks. To remove this "doubt" is what we propose by our action on to-morrow. Let every man who has the real interest of the city at stake be at his post.

For The Constitution.]

Under Whose Authority the Municipal Election is Held.

This is a proposition not entirely clear to the minds of many of our good citizens. As to the only authority recognizable in the premises, we refer all in doubt, to the terms of the charter.

Now, for instance, many persons innocently suppose that the present Mayor and Board of Aldermen should call the election, say when it should take place, and arrange all the preliminaries. But such is not the case. By the charter of the city they are empowered to designate the several points in the five wards where ballot-boxes shall be placed on the day of the election, but beyond that, their jurisdiction does not extend. Further than that, they have no more to do with the election than so many private citizens. They resolved that the election now at hand should not take place, which action was in direct violation of the law in the case made and provided, and is therefore, of no more force than if so many citizens in their private capacity, had so declared.

The Charter of the city provides for the day of the election, and declares who are competent to manage the ballot boxes; and it is beyond the power of the present Mayor and Aldermen, by captious opposition to the law, to defeat the operation of the Charter.

It will be seen, therefore, that there is no other legitimate course to pursue but to hold the election; and the arrangements made for to-morrow (Wednesday, Dec. 2) are in strict conformity with the law, and it becomes all good citizens to go forward and vindicate the law!

Under the ruling of the present Council, that they have the right to "suspend" said election, they could perpetutate themselves in power indefinitely, unless the Legislature should put an end to their usurpation of power.

As to the power of Council, above indicated, to designate places in the Wards where polls shall be opened, we have to say they have already done so, and it stands an ordinance unrepealed upon the books. There is, then, no difficulty in the way, and the election of to-morrow is a fixed fact!

These views are based upon the opinions of the best legal ability of this city, and a successful contradiction is defied!

Dec. 1, 1868. THE PEOPLE.

NEWSPAPERS IN SCHOOLS.—The New York Tribune in commenting on the propriety of introducing newspapers into Schools says:

In Philadelphia, where all the newspaper men are graduates of the High Shool, and write English with an elegance that would have astonished Addison, no doubt this experiment would be a brilliant success. Pupils in the grammar schools would find opportunity for profound meditation in the local reports of some of those journals, while the younger children in the primary schools would be delighted with the simple Saxon of Mr. "Occasional's" letters to The Press.

What would Addison think, were he to see his elegance in diction, style and English contrasted with the vulgar slang and partisan billingsgate of Forney?

Beware.

From the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel.]

We learn that there is considerable feeling, if not actual excitement, among some of our planting friends upon the subject of cotton raising next year. The recent statements of heavy results obtained from planting cotton this year by a few of our most industrious, enterprising and intelligent planters has given to the production of cotton in this State a sort of Utopian character, which may lead to the ruin of many of our citizens.

The large results, so far, which have been obtained, have been confined to small patches and cannot be regarded as anything like a fair test of what cotton planting on a large or even moderately large scale will produce. We do not doubt but that two, three, or even five bales of cotton have been made and can be again made on one acre; but we do not believe that such results are attainable to the culture of a large crop. Doubtless thorough tillage, high manuring and an improved and intelligent system of cultivation will enable the thrifty and industrious planter, who lives upon and personally directs the operations of his plantation, to make larger crops than have heretofore been considered possible on our old exhausted lands. But he who expects to reach such results upon a large plantation as Mr. Bancroft has obtained upon a small town lot will be sadly disappointed.

We do not pretend to say that the same amount of money expended for fertilizers and the same quantity of labor bestowed upon one acre by Mr. Bancroft, will not produce like results if applied to each acre, in a hundred or a thousand acre field. What we insist upon is this: While a prudent man may expend twenty or thirty dollars per acre for fertilizers for a small patch, the same man would not risk two or three thousand dollars on an hundred acres, when he considers the uncertainty of our season and the liability of the plant to be ruined with rust or destroyed by worms.

We would be rejoiced to know that all our planters were carefully and prudently moving in the direction indicated by the experiments of Mr. Bancroft, Mr. Dixon and other intelligent planters, but we should be sorry to hear that any of them had attempted to invest even twenty dollars per acre for fertilizers on a very large scale for the next crop. Not only is the uncertainty of the seasons and the amount of the crop to be considered in this connection, but what is of quite as much importance the price which it may bear next year is to be taken into consideration.

With the staple at twenty-five cents or even twenty cents a pound, money can be made by planting provided the planter makes his own provisions. We incline to doubt, however, if money can be made when all the corn, long forage and provisions for the planter's family and his laborers have to be bought at the present high prices. Neither do we believe that much clear money can be made upon rented lands. When the rent is paid, the laborer paid, the provisions paid for, the loss of work animals, and the wear and tear of farming implements are paid for, there will be but little left to the profit side of account. Our eye has just fallen upon a statement made in one of our State exchanges, that a tract of land of two hundred and eighty-five acres in Polk county, recently rented for twenty-seven hundred dollars or within a fraction of ten dollars per acre. The reason why it brought so much is stated to be, because "it is among the best cotton places in the State." Now when the renter of that place pays for his labor and provisions, and then deducts from his crop twenty-seven hundred dollars for rent, we shall be greatly surprised if he has a single dollar left in the way of profits.

We trust that we do not underestimate either the importance or the profits under proper and judicious management of cotton planting, neither would we discourage our planters from using liberal supplies of the best and most reliable fertilizers. We know that much money has been made through the intelligent use of commercial manures as applied to the cultivation of our great staple. Our object is simply to warn our planting friends of the great danger they are in of being led away under the present high prices of cotton by the Aladdin-like stories of three and five bales of cotton. Festina lente is a good maxim for planters as well as politicians. Children crawl before they learn to walk? Let us try to make profitably one bale per acre before we attempt to reach five. When we perfect a system which will insure a bale for each acre planted it will be time enough to take thought for more.

SEGREGATING THE NEGRO POPULATION.—In the Legislature of West Virginia, last Monday, the following proposition was submitted:

Mr. Evans offered a resolution that our Senators be instructed and our Congressmen requested to procure an act of Congress, giving to the freedmen of the public lands lying between the 30th and 37th degrees north latitude, and the 98th and 114th degress west longitude from Greenwich, enough to make six States as big as the State of New York; that the title of the land so given be rendered inalienable except between persons of African descent, that it may remain forever the property of the African race.

On motion this resolution was made the order of the day for 3 o'clock, P. M., of next Wednesday.

HEAVY SHIPMENT OF COTTON FOR LIVERPOOL.—The Largest Cargo Ever Sent Out. On Saturday last, Messrs. Brigham, Holst & Co., cleared the American ship, Emerald Isle, 1,696 tons, Captain Thomas R. Herbert, for Liverpool, with a cargo consisting of 4,899 bales of upland cotton, weighing 2,315,988 pounds, valued at $539,045 81, and 11 bags of sea island, weighing 3,152 pounds, valued at $2,364; total number of bales and bags, 4,910; total weight, 2,319,140 pounds; total value, $541,409 81.

The Emerald Isle is the largest vessel that ever came up to our wharves, and, so far as we can learn, she has taken out the largest cargo of cotton ever shipped from this port. Her cargo was stowed away by J. K. Reilly & Bro., stevedores.—Savannah News.

Louisville Market.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 27.

Hogs and Pork Packing.

There was a firmer feeling in the market to-day and we note sales of 2,300 head at 7 35a7 75 gross; also 194 head, averaging 300 lbs, at 7¾c gross, the market closing active. Present prices for hogs are regarded too high, and current prices for the product afford no margin for profits. The logic of events in business affairs points steadily to a lower range of rates, with few exceptions, in all leading commodities. But, while our packers are purchasing liberally at above prices, farmers and feeders will do well to bear in mind that Louisville affords the best market for hogs in the West. The Cincinnati quotations to-day were 6¾a7½c gross, with receipts of 12,000 head in two days.

Receipt of hogs to-day 5,807.

The Indianapolis Sentinel of Thursday contains the following:

The market was rather dull to-day, with prices still favoring the purchaser. The weather had some effect upon the business; in fact, it was the cause of operations being suspended at two of the packing houses. Judging from the looks of the pens at the several establishments, there is no scarcity of hogs, as they are all pretty well filled. The offerings are still fair and receipts are moderately large, mostly by rail, though no inconsiderable number is arriving on foot. Holders are not near so stiff as they have been, and are willing to make slight concessions in order to effect sales; buyers don't find it near so difficult to make contracts as several days ago, although they are not "going the whole hog," in taking up all offered for sale, and are buying somewhat sparingly.

FLOUR—There was a firmer feeling in the market to-day with liberal sales to the local trade and some inquiry for speculation is reported. Sales to-day embrace 980 bbls within the range of quotations We quote fine at 5 00a5 50, superfine 5 50 a7 25, extra 6 50a7 00, extra family 7 25a8 00, No. 1 8 50a9 25, fancy 9 50a10 75. Rye flour we quote at 7 75a8 00.

GRAIN—A firmer feeling in wheat is reported, but transactions are of moderate importance. Oats are firm with an upward tendency. Old corn is in light supply and nominal. Sales 800 bushels wheat at 1 85a1 86; 600 bush oats at 55a57; 3,800 bush malt at 2 10a2 25; 500 bush No. 2 spring at 1 80. Sales 1,000 bush rye at 1 30a1 35. We quote oats at 55a57, from store, and 50 on arrival. Wheat at 1 65a1 80 on arrival, for red and white. New corn 50c per bushel, on arrival, and 55a60 from store; old corn 65a70, on arrival, shelled and in ear, and 80a85, from store, sacks included. Rye 1 30a1 35, from store, and 1 20a1 25 on arrival. Barley 1 75a1 90 for Nos. 1 and 2 spring; no fall barley in market. Malt is steady at 2 10a2 25, for spring, 2 75 for fall. Canada malt 2 50 and 1 75 for rye malt.

POTATOES—Are in liberal receipt and dealers are buying from wagons at 1 75a2 00 per bbl loose. Sales 300 bbls from store at 2 40a2 50 in shipping order.

PROVISIONS—The market is steady with a good demand for bulk meats, with sales of 130,000 lbs packed at 9¾a9½ for shoulders, 13a13¼ for clear rib sides, and 13¾a14 for clear sides. Sales 16,000 bulk meats loose at 9c for shoulders, 12¾ for clear rib sides, and 13¾ for clear sides. Lard is in good demand with sales of 75 tierces in lots at 15a15½; keg lard is held at 16a16¼. Pork is quiet at 23 00a23 50, with sales of 56 bbls reported.

WHISKY—The market was steady to-day and we note sales of 75 bbls raw at 98, tax paid. Rectified is steady at 1 05a1 20 per gall, according to proof.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 27.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchanged; superfine sold at 5 00a5 50; extra 5 75a6 34; double extra at 6 50 a7 00.

GRAIN — Wheat — millers generally are out of the market and prices are lower at 1 30a1 60 for fair to strictly prime red fall; 1 65a1 80 for choice to fancy do; 1 70a1 95 for prime to fancy white; very little spring offering; a few sacks of good No. 2 sold at 1 20. Corn heavy and drooping at 76 a80. Oats slow and unchanged at 52a54. Barley dull and buyers generally are out of the market; small sales of strictly prime and fancy at 1 90a2 20. Rye dull and lower at 1 12a1 14.

WHISKY — Is nominal and held above buyers' views.

PROVISIONS—Pork dull and lower at 23 00 for country and 23 60 for city. Bulk shoulders in dry salt sold at 9¼a9½; clear sides 13a13¼. Bacon shoulders have declined to 11¼; clear sides sold at 17¼; old sugar cured hams 18. Lard quiet at 14c for choice tierce.

HOGS—In fair supply and prices easier, but not quotably lower. The weather is not favorable for packing. Light hogs sold at 6a6¼c; heavy at 6¾ a7; extra at 7¼.

CATTLE—No choice on the market; inferior to prime sold at 2¼a5¼.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 27.

FLOUR—Unchanged.
GRAIN—Unchanged.
WHISKY—Firm at 98.
OIL—Linseed dull at 95.
HOGS — Firm at 6 75a7 40 in the forenoon, but the feeling was not so strong at the close. Receipts for the past two days 9,000.
PROVISIONS — Mess pork firmer but quiet at 22 50a22 75 for the best brand; 23 00 asked. Bulk meats were dull; shoulders 9¼a9¾, clear rib sides 12¾a13, and clear 13¼a13¾ packed, and 18 to 25 days in salt. Green meats dull; shoulders 7a7½, sides 9¾a10, and hams 11a11¼. Lard quiet but firmer at 14c for prime steam, and 14¼a15 for kettle rendered.
CHEESE—Firm at 16¾a17 for Western Reserve, and 18 for factory.
APPLES—Firm for prime at 1 15 per bbl.
POTATOES—Firm at 3 a3 50 per bush.

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS.
The Albany Cotton Gin Manuf'g Co.
Manufacturers of the Celebrated "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers, "Star" Threshing Machines, "Star" Lever and Endless Chain Horse Powers, and other Agricultural Machinery.

Our "STAR" Cotton Gin and Condenser have taken first premiums in every instance where entered at Southern Fairs, competing with the best Gins of the country made by other parties.

At the two Great Fairs of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Association, held at New Orleans successively in November, 1866, and January, 1868, the "Star" Gin and Condenser took first at both Fairs, and all the premiums offered on Gins and Condensers, against a competition embracing all other Gins of any prominence in the country. Also at the last two State Fairs held at St. Louis, Mo., our Gin and Condenser took the First Premium against a powerful competition.

The Condenser attachment being new to most planters, we wish to say that it entirely obviates the necessity of a "lint room," as with it a Gin may be used in the open air and the sheet or bat as it is discharged from the Condenser is ready for the press. It effectually cleans the cotton of sand and dirt, and makes the work of ginning free from the danger of inhaling the fine particles of lint which otherwise fill the air.

N. B. We also make the most approved HORSE POWERS (both Lever and Railway) to drive our "Star" Gins, and also manufacture the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines. We furnish Gins, with or without Condensers. For sale by our AGENTS and DEALERS generally. Our Complete Illustrated Descriptive Circular is sent, free of charge, on application by mail. Address The ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING CO., Albany, N. Y., P. O. Drawer 162.

LORILLARD'S
"Yacht Club"
SMOKING TOBACCO.
The best judges everywhere declare it to be the best for many reasons:
It is made of the finest stock grown.
It has a mild and agreeable aroma.
It is anti-nervous in its effects—
The Nicotine having been extracted—
And is perfectly free from drugs.
It leaves no acrid, disagreeable after-taste.
Does not burn or sting the tongue,
And leaves no offensive odor in the room.
Being very light, one pound will last as long
As two to three pounds of ordinary tobaccos.
Orders for Elegant Meerchaum Pipes
Are being packed daily in the various Sized Bags in which it is sold.
BUY IT, TRY IT, AND CONVINCE YOURSELF
That is has all the advantages we claim for it.
If your dealer does not keep it, ask him to get it.

LORILLARD'S
EUREKA SMOKING TOBACCO
A GOOD SMOKING TOBACCO IS A PERPETUAL COMFORT.
The "Eureka" Tobacco is likewise an excellent article of choice Virginia Tobacco, of a heavier body than the former, and hence much cheaper in price; nevertheless it makes an excellent smoke.
Orders for Meerchaum Pipes are also packed daily in this brand.

Lorillard's Snuffs
Still retain the excellent quality for which they have become famous wherever used.

MORNING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, DECEMBER 2.

For Congress, Seventh District,

GEN. P. M. B. YOUNG,

OF BARTOW COUNTY.

Democratic Nominations
FOR CONGRESS.

1. A. H. HANSELL, of Thomas.
2. NELSON TIFT, of Dougherty.
3. HUGH BUCHANAN, of Coweta
4. THOS. G. LAWSON, of Putnam.
6. WEIR BOYD, of Lumpkin.
7. P. M. B. YOUNG, of Bartow.

REFUSED.—The advertisement announcing the places and managers for the election to-day, was refused a place in the columns of the Intelligencer. It was handed in by Democrats and was to be paid for by Democrats. Did the Intelligencer on Monday stipulate to ignore Democracy in its business department?

TO THE POLLS!—Let noman be deterred from the polls to-day, by the terror of taxes. The Tax Collector, Mr. Smith, says the payment of the taxes will not be demanded. If there be no one at the polls to collect and receipt for taxes, no one will be challenged on that ground. To the polls! then, every man, and let the voice of the people be heard and felt.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY.—Our friends in this city should not be satisfied short of a large vote for the Democratic ticket today. The absence of the opposition is no reason why we should fail to poll our entire strength. It is the duty of every good citizen to give the ticket his cordial support. The city affords no better men than those of whom it is composed. During the desperate struggle of the opposition to get up a ticket of their own, they utterly failed to raise an objection prejudicial in the least to ours. The men composing it are without reproach. In real worth they are invulnerable to the attacks of their enemies, if, indeed, they have such. These gentlemen are to govern and direct our city affairs for the ensuing year, therefore, it is meet that we should give them a warm, earnest and united support. It is due them by those whose interests it will be their highest ambition to protect and promote during their term of office. A cordial endorsement by our citizens to-day will prepare them all the more pleasantly to enter upon the responsible duties they are called to perform.

Then, let there be as full a turn out in the several Wards as if the election were a hotly contested one.

☞ The barbed arrows of M. Rochefort, the satirical Parisian journalist, are still directed at the Emperor of the French. His shafts are pointed with Damascus steel, and every time they strike, the nerves of royalty quiver beneath the stroke.

The Emperor may cause men to be imprisoned for singing the Marseillaise, and their "ungodly glee" may be pronounced sedition to Imperial Courts, but the air that led the sans culottes to glory in 1792, slumbers unforgotten in the hearts of the people, to be revived from time to time, when bolder spirits like Rochefort, defiant even in despair, shall touch again some latent cord. It would really seem, says the New Orleans Times, as though Napoleon had met his fate in the person of M. Rochefort. No greater adept at stripping the tinseled robes from royalty has graced any age. His sarcasm is as novel as it is powerful. His last slap at the Emperor consists in the relation of a suppositious story to the effect that when Louis Napoleon was escaping from Ham he was attacked and strangled by a journeyman bricklayer, who assumed his disguise and fled to England, from which he was recalled by the French people to exchange the trowel for the sceptre. He goes on to say that the moment it is understood a journeyman bricklayer is seated on the French throne instead of Napoleon III,

"We are able to account for everything—the incessant building mania, the needless appropriations, the demolition and rebuilding of the Tuileries, the intolerable mania to mix up everything like lime, the plaster with which the Empress covers her face every morning, and finally, the edifice whose coronation he promises us all the time, show plainly that a bricklayer is at the head of France."

No wonder the Emperor is so incensed against this daring journalist; the temper be his steel is such that nothing can stand against it.

CONGRESSIONAL MONOPOLY.—It is not improbable that one of the first questions before the next session of Congress will be that of placing the railroads and telegraphs of the country under Government control. Several months ago we assumed that under the centralizing tendency of the party in power, all private corporations would ultimately pass, as our State and banking institutions have already done, into the keeping of Congress. All minor interests will be forced to succumb to the one great overshadowing power. At the present rate of progression Congress will be in a few years more autocratic in power than the Russian Czar.

With the railroads, telegraph lines and express companies, in its hands there will be no limit to its power. The pretext for these aggressions is foreshadowed by Senator Sherman, when he holds that Congress has "the power to regulate railroad lines above all State power." This is not only to be the policy, but we believe the programme has already been agreed upon by the leaders of the party in power. The pretext is to destroy the dangerous influence of individual monopolies, by transferring their powers to the General Government. Instead of correcting the minor evils complained of at present, they will become instruments of stupendous fraud and corruption, from the very hour they pass under Congressional control.

☞ The Georgia Railroad will pass delegates to the Agricultural and Mechanical Convention, to be held in Macon on the 10th inst., for one fare.

☞ Co-operation gains ground in Pennsylvania. Co-operative stores, associations &c., are forming not only in the cities but in the rural districts. Large associations especially exist among the miners in all coal counties, and on or about the first of the year Scranton, Luzerne county, is determined to open a co-operative store.

Maj. John H. Steele.

It affords us infinite pleasure to correct any misapprehension that may have arisen in regard to our article, in yesterday evening's edition, on the Intelligencer. We did not intend to place our honored friend and venerable cotemporary, whose name heads this paragraph, in the same category with the paper he has so long edited and adorned. We know his heart and the incorruptibility of his political faith too well to doubt his fidelity for a moment. He stands like a Bayard in the van, pure, unsullied and above price. Let no man touch his revered and venerated locks with the finger of suspicion.

Since writing the above, we have received the subjoined correspondence, which shows that, in our present difficulties, as on all former occasions, Major Steele throws the weight of his experienced judgment and influence with the law, the right and the people:

ATLANTA, Dec. 1, 1868.

Major J. H. Steele, Esq., Atlanta, Georgia:
DEAR SIR—The undersigned feel desirous of having your individual opinion of the action of the City Council concerning the postponement of the election which under the city charter should take place to-morrow. As the presiding officer of the meeting that nominated the Democratic ticket and a city journalist that has never failed to promote, when in your power, the interests of the city, they respectfully ask a response in writing to this note. Your obedient servants.

M. P. BYINGTON,
THOS. W. J. HILL,
WILLIAM EZZARD,
WM. M. BUTT.

ATLANTA, Dec. 1, 1868.

Gentlemen:—To your note, asking my "opinion of the action of the City Council, concerning the postponement of the election, which, under the City Charter, should take place to-morrow," I reply, that, in my judgment, backed by the opinion of the highest legal talent in this city, the action of the City Council is without warrant of law, and, therefore, improper.

Respectfully your ob't serv't.
J. H. STEELE.

To Messrs. M. P. Byington, Thos. W. J. Hill, William Ezzard, Wm. M. Butt.

AFFAIRS IN SPAIN.—The New York Tribune says: "The Republicans of Spain have made another enthusiastic and immense demonstration at Saragossa, while Monarchists have held large meetings at Corunna, Ferrol, and some other places. Both parties are making the utmost efforts to secure a majority in the Constituent Assembly. Though the Spaniards were not accustomed to a campaign of this kind, we have not heard yet of any riots, and the conduct of the electoral campaign has thus far been as creditable to Spain as the success of the revolution. In whatever way the majority of the Constituent Assembly may ultimately decide the question of the future Government of the country, the last three months of Spanish history cannot fail to prove a most instructive school for the political education of the people.

☞ Wendell Phillips is announced to lecture in Boston on "the lost arts." Why should he and his followers wish to revive the lost ones, when they are the authors of so many that are new? Among "the lost arts" we presume the distinguished lecturer will enumerate one so long oblivious to his section—that of attending to one's own business and of letting other people alone. In the same catalogue he will no doubt include that of practicing religion according to Biblical precept, as well as the art of doing good generally; all of which seem to have been "lost" for some years, to that peculiar section which Mr. Phillips represents.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—It is reported to us from Washington, says the New York Tribune, that General Warren, a most competent authority on all engineering questions, is preparing a report on the construction of the Pacific Railroad, so unfavorable that the President talks of suspending the further payment of Government bonds as subsidy. We trust the report may prove exaggerated, but we beg the proper authorities to spare no scrutiny in the matter, and to exact from the roads a literal and scrupulous conformity to the letter of the legal requirements. There has been much whispered gossip of an unpleasant nature about the construction of these great public works; now let us have rigid investigation, and absolute fulfillment of contract.

☞ The talented editor of the Columbus Sun, spent a day or two of last week, in our midst. On his return home he gives the readers of the Sun the benefit of his observations in our city, in the following article:

ATLANTA.—Business, not of a professional character, enabled us to take a look at Atlanta and her people during the past week. To say that we were surprised at its wonderful growth and present activity, would scarcely give adequate expression to the sensation produced by seeing an elegant city populated by bustling, energetic people, where but three years since, were piles of broken car wheels, a number of Yankee graves, and hundreds of smoked and charred chimneys standing guard over them. Where all this industry and enterprise comes from, how these people live and prosper, is an enigma which presents itself to every one who journeys thither, and one that is beyond our comprehension to understand or capacity to solve. The place looks like a city, a city just starting to grow to vast proportions, and its people talk and behave like those who could not be astonished at any extravagance of progress or enterprise. We were amused, entertained and instructed by our visit, and hasten to record with pleasure the confession that we came back with better impressions of the place and its population than we had indulged before going there.

THE PRESS GANG

of course came in our way, and we were pleased to see Styles, of the CONSTITUTION, Steele, Whitaker and Ells of the Intelligencer, in most excellent health and spirits, but not receiving sufficient encouragement and substantial patronage from those who have profited by their labors, and who should now pay back to them a portion of the immense debt of gratitude the people of the South justly owe to their press.

ATLANTA SOCIALLY

is pleasant, refined and agreeable in those circles to which we found our way, and in which we were treated with a most generous hospitality. We took a look at an Atlanta audience at the Theatre. The attendance was small. An "Escomateur" was performing. For the uninitiated, we will state that the word means a slight of hand performer. He was clever in his way, but Hulbert was so much cleverer in hocus pocusing Bullock, himself, and others into fat places, that legerdemain is no new thing to the Atlantese. There was not much style or display on the part of the ladies or gentlemen, but great decorum upon the part of all. The only rough feature which arrested our attention was Bob McWhorter, Speaker of the House, stalking in with a cross between the swagger of a stage driver and the strut of a circus supe, bearing a villainous "long nine" cigar in immediate advance of several heavy slugs of "old Bourbon."

ATLANTA POLITICALLY

is much sounder and sweeter than we imagined. The Radical magnates sing small thereabouts, are seldom seen in public, and never in decent company. Bullock has fled the country and will turn up at Washington in December with the customary whine of the persecuted "Loilist." Why Atlanta or any other place should desire the company of a Legislature, baffles our comprehension, but active preparations are being made for the small sized statesman of Georgia, in a very large building, originally planned for an Opera House.—Two committees of the body aforesaid, are in session at Atlanta. They are working with extraordinary perseverance to prolong their stay and pay as long as possible, and with the most flattering prospects of success. The laugh comes in when it is known that one of these is a Special Committee on retrenchment.

People who propose to go to Atlanta professionally or otherwise, as we have done, had best follow our example further. Immediately opposite the Railroad Depot, they will find the United States Hotel, kept by a liberal and gentlemanly landlord, assisted by polite and attentive clerks. There they will find comforts of all sorts, prompt attention, good company, and moderate charges.

Like all rapidly growing towns, Atlanta attracts all classes of people from all quarters of the country. Like soldiers, towns have to go through with what is known as camp diseases. Atlanta is suffering just now with an attack of measles in the shape of a Concert Saloon Company. For disgusting and unbridled vulgarity, unrelieved by music or wit, it cannot possibly be surpassed. It is immensely popular with the military and the scalawags.

THE MILITARY

are very little seen and less thought of in the place. It is wonderful, and at the same time, gratifying to know that the presence of Pope and Meade and their commands have produced so slight an impression upon the morals and manners of the people who have been unhappily subjected to contact with them. This may be accounted for to some degree by the fact that most of the private soldiers are honest and respectable Democrats. Atlanta has a excellent police, and is going to have after Wednesday next, an admirable municipal government, and we sincerely hope she may thrive and grow and prosper until she far surpasses the greatness and power predicted for her by the prophetic mind of the ablest and purest statesmen that the South has ever produced.

Particulars of the Shooting of Pollard.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE, AND OF THAT OF HIS SLAYER.

We quote, as follows, from the Richmond Dispatch, of Wednesday:

At about ten o'clock yesterday morning, H. Rives Pollard, the widely known editor of the Southern Opinion, a weekly newspaper published in Richmond, was shot down in the street and almost instantly killed. Mr. Pollard resided about one mile from the city on the Grove Road. Yesterday morning he and his associate editor, Mr. J. Marshall Hanna, left the house in the country at a little after nine o'clock. They were driven to town in a light vehicle, which conveyed them to the office of the Opinion, on the corner of Fourteenth and Main streets. Entering from Maine into Fourteenth street, the vehicle stopped, and the two gentlemen alighted, Mr. Pollard walked leisurely toward the Fourteenth-street entrance to his office, while Mr. Hanna remained behind to give some directions to the driver. Mr. Pollard had taken but a step or two, and Mr. Hanna had turned to join him, when a loud report was heard, and almost instantaneously Mr. Pollard fell flat upon his face, uttering only a groan of pain. He seemed to be dead. Mr. Hanna, expecting another shot, and looking around to see whence the first came, drew his pistol almost involuntarily. But the work of the unseen foe was completed.

Several police officers and detectives who were standing not far off, ran immediately to the spot, some to the assistance of the wounded man, and others to apprehend his assailant. The first, with the aid of bystanders, turned over the body and saw that the flame of life was still flickering. They lifted the body and made their way up stairs, but before half a dozen steps were taken there was a convulsive shudder, and expression of agony overspread the face, and H. Rives Pollard was dead.

THE REMAINS LAID OUT.

Upon a mattress in the editorial room, the dead body was laid out. His fall upon the pavement had inflicted a severe, ghastly wound upon the forehead, and at first it was thought that this was the wound that caused his death. In a moment, however, the coat and shirt were torn open, exposing an orifice on the right side of the neck, from which the warm blood was welling. One buckshot had lodged here, six were found in the right shoulder, one passed through the heart, and two were picked out of other parts of the body. The face wore the pallor of death itself, and was besprinkled with the dust it had kissed.—The lips were open just enough to reveal the clenched teeth, but the expression of pain had fled with the spirit of the man.

AN ARREST.

Meantime, in the street, the excitement was intense. With swift wings the news had been spread through the city, and every foot was turned toward the scene of the tragedy until the crowd was several hundred in number. Surmising that the shot had been fired from an upper window of the building opposite, the lower part of which is occupied by W. B. Isaacs & Co., Detectives Craddock and Knox were in a few moments up stairs. The latter knocked at the first door he came to, and beat upon it again and again, but there was no response. Then he ran through the passage to another door, but it was locked. But there was a voice from within: "Is that you, Bob?" asked the person within, in clear, steady tones. "Yes," "All right, then, was the rejoinder, "but you'll have to break the door open. It is locked, and I havn't the key." The panels yielded to the sturdy blows from the detective's fist. With a crash they were broken, and through the whole thus made, Mr. Craddock sprang into the room.

There stood Mr. James Grant, one pistol in hand, another on the table. He was a little pale, but smiling, and he said loud enough to be heard without the room, "I only ask for protection. Here is my pistol; there is another on the table." The weapons were taken by the officers, and Mr. Grant, without any show of resistance on his part, was arrested and carried to the police station to answer for the killing of H. Rives Pollard.

THE ROOM AND WHAT WAS FOUND THERE.

The room is one occupied as a dormitory by Major Harry Clinton. It was almost as he had left it in the morning. On the table was a derringer pistol; its fellow had been given up by Mr. Grant. But there was an other weapon, which a detective's quick eye espied. It was a double-barreled shot gun, placed in the corner right by the window on Fourteenth street. This window was raised about a foot, and supported in that position by an old blacking brush. The sill was blackened by something like burned powder. The right-hand barrel of the shot gun was without a load; the other had a liberal charge of buckshot.

SKETCH OF THE DECEASED.

Henry Rives Pollard was still a young man—not more than thirty-five years of age. He was a son of Major Richard Pollard, an officer in the old United States navy. He was born in Alta Vista, Nelson county, Va., and was named after Hon. William C. Rives, of Albemarle. He passed a year or two at the Virginia Military Institute, and thence went to the University of Virginia, but, as we are informed, did not graduate at either institution. He commenced life as a clerk in the Postoffice Department at Washington, but in a few months resigned in order to join a party going out West. These were surveyors, employed by the government on a mission to Kansas at about the time of the Border War excitement. He remained with this party but a short time, but did not leave Kansas. He settled at Leavenworth, and here commenced his newspaper career as editor of the Leavenworth Herald. At about this time he received an appointment as American Consul at Bangkok, Siam, but declined it, owing to his connections in this country.

We next hear of him in Baltimore, Md., where he was employed by Dr. G. A. Moore, on the Southern Family Journal, a brilliant but short-lived literary weekly. He then went on the Baltimore Sun as news editor, a position which he held until the breaking out of the war. He then came to Richmond and obtained an appointment under John M. Daniel as news editor of the Examiner, then in the height of his popularity. His relations with Mr. Daniel were agreeable, and that gentleman was wont to express a favorable opinion of his journalistic talent. He was Mr. Daniel's second in his duel with Hon. E. C. Elmore, Secretary of the Confederate Treasury.

With Mr. Daniel Mr. Pollard remained until the death of Mr. Daniel, two days before the evacuation of Richmond. Soon afterwards, in conjunction with Mr. Chas. H. Wynne, he started the Evening, which afterwards became the morning, Times. A misunderstanding, resulting in a law suit, led to the dissolution of this copartnership. He then revived the Examiner, and being without means himself, relied upon his brother-in-law, Mr. Samuel James, for pecuniary help. Mr. James failing him, his paper was supported by means obtained under an agreement with the Adams Express Company through their confidential agent in this city. This was about the time of the organization of the National Expre s Company.

During Mr. Pollard's connection with the Examiner his difficulties with General Henningsen, Samuel James, and one Fitchett, occurred. The facts in these cases have been sufficiently ventilated in the public press. In October, 1866, he left the Examiner, selling out to Mr. Thomas H. Wynne. The same month occurred his affair with Frederick Hipkins in the streets of Baltimore. Hipkins, it will be remembered, was maimed for life. In the spring of 1867 he commenced a lecturing tour, with his essay on the "Chivalry of the South." Its delivery in Lynchburg was interdicted by General Wilcox, but General Schofield withdrew the interdict. The lecture was delivered twice afterward, but did not seem to take; and this project was abandoned. On the 15th of June, 1867, Mr. Pollard started the Southern Opinion, as an exponent of extreme Southern views. He was its editor at the time of his death.

Mr. Pollard's mother was a sister of the late Wm. C. Rives and of Judge Alexander Rives. One sister is the widow of Rear Admiral Charles H. Bell, United States navy, who was drowned a few months ago in China seas. Another is Mrs. Dr. Parker, of Macon, Ga.; and another is now residing in Lucerne, Switzerland. The elder brother, Edward A. Pollard, is the well known historian and magazinest, now resident in New York. The other is Mr. Richard Pollard, a well known and highly respectable citizen of Lynchburg. Both have been informed by telegraph of their brother's death, and Mr. Edward A. Pollard will probably be in Richmond to-day. Mrs. Richard Pollard telegraphed yesterday that her husband was on a hunting excursion in Bath county.

Of Mr. Pollard's capacity as a journalist there seems to be but one opinion. He was familiar with every department of the profession which he followed. Many who were in his employment speak of him in kind terms, though he was by no means a popular man. Of his private life this is not the place nor time to speak. It is not the temper of charity to speak evil of the spirit just ushered into the presence of its God, and while the body in which its deeds of life were done is stark and cold, just touched by the finger of death.

THE ACCUSED.

Everybody in Richmond knows James Grant, and there are not many young men more popular. He is the eldest son of Mr. William H. Grant, a well known tobacco manufacturer, residing on Clay street between Tenth and Eleventh. He is a stoutly-built young man—not unhandsome. He is best known as a musical amateur, having a bass voice universally admired. He was a cadet at Lexington when the war commenced and enlisted as a member of the Caskie Rangers, of this city. For awhile he was a courier for Gen. Jeb Stuart. He is now interested in the tobacco concern of which his father is the head.

After being arrested Mr. Grant was escorted to the lower police station and placed in the room of the Chief of Police. A number of his friends spent the day with him. He was in good spirits, and passed the time in smoking and lively conversation. He made no admission whatever as to the shooting. It is understood that Judge Crump and Colonel Ould have been retained in his defense.

SENATOR SHERMAN ON OUR POLITICAL AND FINANCIAL SITUATION.—Our special correspondence from the home of Senator Sherman, of Ohio, which we published yesterday, presents in a concise manner, the views of one of the most eminent statesmen of the country on our political and financial situation. Mr. Sherman had no fear or mental reservation in expressing himself freely to our correspondent, but spoke frankly and as if the people had a right to know through the press, what his opinions are. He had "no reasons to be reticent, no opinions on public matters that might not be printed." With regard to political matters he is hopeful. He considers the election of General Grant will settle forever the reconstruction question, and in that view of the case he is "in favor of the utmost liberality to the South, would relieve it of all forms of disability, provided only it gives protection to the people within its limits." He regards the subject of the national finances as the most important of all in the immediate future. Upon the question of specie payments he takes the middle ground, and is neither for contraction nor expansion. He thinks that if our finances be put upon a sound basis and the government properly and economically administered we shall grow up to specie payments naturally and without any shock or revulsion. This is sound doctrine, and it is gratifying to know that a man of Mr. Sherman's position, and influence has arrived at that in spite of the crazy resumption clamors of many of his party. Speaking of taxation, he said he would make it touch exclusively, if possible, imported articles and luxuries, and would have a surplus revenue to apply to the extinguishment of the national debt. He likes his own funding bill and thinks the substitute passed by both houses of Congress "was a humbug—a bridge to get over the election." One very important question—that of placing the railroads under government control—came up, and he unhesitatingly expressed the opinion that Congress has "the power to regulate railroad lines above all State power." He considers it clear that this power is derived from the clause of the Constitution authorizing Congress to regulate commerce among the several States. Mr. Sherman is right, and we hope he will introduce a comprehensive measure to regulate the railroads and put an end to the monopolies and corruptions that now exist. On the whole, Mr. Sherman's views on public affairs are those of a statesman and indicate a better state of things, politically and financially, in the future.—N. Y. Herald.

☞ A correspondent of the Revolution, who signs herself "Helen," is vehemently opposed to the practice indulged in by some women of allowing themselves to be called by diminutives, instead of by their Christian names in full. She says: "Elizabeth is a stately name, but Lizzie is suggestive of one who is weak and dependent, however lovely she may be. Catherine is beautiful and strong; but Katie or Kittie!—what a bulesque on the original name. So with all pet or nicknames. Who could imagine Miss Anthony doing so rediculous a thing as to call herself Susie. Think of Hattie Stowe or Maggie Fuller! One Kansas paper had the hardihood to nickname Mrs. Stanton Liz, but it produced a tremendous recoil on the editor's head. One of the correspondents of the Revolution signs herself Lizzie Leavenworth, M. D. Now, I shall never take any of her medicine—not one single homeopathic pill of it—till she calls herself Elizabeth."

FROM WASHINGTON.

Columbia and Augusta Railroad Completed.

Fort LaFayette, New York, on Fire

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—Judge Chase decided several confiscation cases sustaining Underwood's previous decisions. The decisions involve the declaration that the confiscation laws are constitutional and that where there was no appearance and plea by defendants, the admiralty side of the District Court had full jurisdiction to decree confiscation and sale. Chase, however, desired the question to come before a full bench of the Supreme Court and an appeal on writ of error was granted.

Richard H. Dana, of Boston, will represent the Government in an argument to quash Davis' indictment.

Rollins has returned.

There was a full Cabinet to-day.

Insurance for the Rich and Poor.

THE cheapest and best system of Life Insurance is now offered by this reliable Company. It is founded upon the principle that one thousand persons come together and bind themselves, each to pay one dollar to the surviving friends of every deceased member among them at his death. These mortuary contributions are

LEFT IN THE POCKETS OF MEMBERS

Till called for at intervals during the year, or for convenience they may be paid in advance, in the shape of a deposit, and in that case eight per cent interest is allowed till the funds are applied. Every person, of either sex, from 15 to 76 years of age, can secure a membership by paying an admission fee of only

SIX DOLLARS,

No matter how many classes may be entered and Ministers in actual charge of Churches can become members

Without any Outlay at the Start.

There are two divisions. The classes in Division 1 are composed of 1,000 members each. This Division includes none but sound lives, and are arranged as follows:

for person from	15 to 25 yrs	25 to 35 yrs	35 to 45 yrs	45 to 55 yrs	55 to 60 yrs	60 to 65 yrs	All sound lives insures
Class A	$ 50	$ 75	$1 00	$1 25	$1 50	$2 00	$ 1,000
Class B	1 00	1 50	2 00	2 50	3 00	4 00	2,000
Class C	1 50	2 25	3 00	3 75	4 50	6 00	3,000
Class E	2 50	3 75	5 00	6 25	7 50	10 00	5,000
Class J	5 00	7 50	10 00	12 50	15 00	20 00	10,000

The second Division is composed of sound lives from 65 to 75 years old, and impaired lives, who may be represented by the "Medical Examiner" as safe for 10 years more of life; each class is entirely separate and distinct from the other. This company is necessarily a

MUTUAL COMPANY,

And cannot insure on any other plan. The self-interested punctuality of each member in paying his Mortuary Contributions, can leave no possibility of the Company's failure to meet all casualties that may occur.

Policies Will Not Become Void in this Company

By reason of inability to meet the notes for large amounts of premiums. The Contributions are only paid at different times during the year, and in such small amounts that almost any one can meet them with certainty and ease. It is our moral duty to strain every nerve to pay our debts and leave our families a boon of comfort after our deaths.

The Eufaula Co-Operative

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Makes this comfort for our families a certainty. Let us avail ourselves of this matchless scheme of relief. The different classes are rapidly filling up. I am now taking applications and furnishing policies for any desired amount.

For information on the subject, and for insurance, apply to W. H. HANCOCK, Agent, Atlanta, Ga.

FINNEY'S REPOSITORY.—We were shown through this fine establishment yesterday, and were surprised at the beauty and elegance of the work on exhibition. We saw some extra fine buggies and wagons, put up by Mr. Finney, which in our estimation are equal to anything from the North. The establishment is complete.

GEORGE T. FRY, ESQ.—We refer with pleasure to the Card of this gentleman, who has recently settled in Atlanta, where he proposes to practice Law. Mr. Fry hails from the "Old Dominion," and possesses all the elements of the Virginia gentleman. Affable and courteous in manners, with a mind cultivated and trained to his legal profession, he will soon gather around him many friends in this his new home. We wish him every success at the bar.

COAL AT REDUCED PRICES.—Mr. Edward Parsons informs us that he has effected facilities of transportation which enables him to furnish, in any quantity, to consumers at reduced figures, two bushels for one dollar, one bushel for thirty cents. Mr. Parsons has ordered seventy-five loads for the months of December, January and February each. This has been done in view of the increased demand for his excellent coal.

LADIES' FURS!—A new lot fine and common Furs, just received, at J. M. HOLBROOK'S, Whitehall street.
decl-2t

THE GRECIAN BEND.—We found a live one on Whitehall yesterday, and since then we've been bethinking what it most resembled, but up to this writing we have remembered no simile. We'll take another look at it to-day, if it take no more horrid shape, and to-morrow try our descriptive powers. We are satisfied, however, that a side view is best, as the front and rear approaches present difficulties that would keep the bravest adventurer a long way off from the "bend."

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.—John M. Gannon is now opening at his one price Dry Goods Store, corner Whitehall and Hunter streets, the largest and cheapest stock of goods that he has ever offered to the people of Atlanta and vicinity. He has a buyer in New York every day in the year, who is at all times prepared to take advantage of any decline that may take place in dry goods. Gannon's motto is one price, quick sales, and small profits. All goods warranted.—The one price system insures fair dealing to everybody. A splendid line of new goods will be opened Monday, Nov. 30th. For particulars, see advertisement elsewhere. nov29 d1m.

VARIETIES.—There was quite a large attendance last night. The first appearance in Atlanta of M'lle Josephine, a danseuse of considerable celebrity in "variety" circles, will be the principal attraction to-night.

CAN'T AFFORD IT.—We beg to inform the local of the National Republican that we do not propose to write editorials for his paper. At the foot of his second column, Sunday morning, he will find the reference. Verbum sat.

SOMETHING NEW IN ATLANTA.—What? One of Mason & Hamlin's new Cabinet Organs, with the vox humana—or human voice accompaniment. One exhibition to-day only, at Phillips & Crew's book and music store. dec2 d1t

HIT THE BULL'S EYE.—The following conversation took place yesterday between two well known citizens:

Mr.—. Well, Pat! I see that Dick Peters has published a card in which he declines running for Alderman.

Pat.—Is that so?

Mr.—Oh yes, and I am very sorry to believe it. It is a great pity to lose so profound a financier from the City Council.

Pat.—Financier! Financier, d'ye say! Who d'ye think 'd be particularly benefitted by his finnancierin'?

Mr.—. Why, Tom, Dick and Harry—everybody.

Pat.—Well, I don't know as Tom and Harry 'd be afther makin' a fortin by the transaction, but I've a mind that DICK would, to a consid'rable extint, no doubt.

CRAZY VOTE.—A vote of the inmates of a Lunatic Asylum at Jewksbury, Mass., was taken, for amusement, and resulted in favor of Grant. It was only the nation in a nut-shell.

Two thousand negroes were killed by the Ku-Klux in Warren county, Georgia, the other day. Such things occur every day. A reign of terror prevails, and the rebellion has broken out all over the State. See Radical papers.—Avalanche.

As the above figures may fall short of the National Republican's estimate, we respectfully appeal to that paper for information.

HYMENEAL.—"Jas. H. House and Miss Lula Allen."—Index.

Miss Lula may now try her hand at housekeeping.

WE find the following unique marriage notice in the Cincinnati Gazette:

Young—Martin and Others—In Salt Lake City, on the 16th ult., in the presence of the Saints, Brigham Young to Mrs. R. M. Jenickson, Mrs. J. R. Martin, Miss L. M. Pendergrast, Miss Susie P. Cleveland, all of the county of Berks, England. No cards.

Lord, what a honeymoon!

Municipal Election Notice.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, to the citizens of Atlanta, that the annual election for Mayor and Ten Aldermen, required by the Charter of the city to be held on the first Wednesday in December of each year, will be held, as follows, on Wednesday next, the 2d inst.:

Polls will be opened in the First Ward at L. H. Davis' Building, on Broad street, and will be presided over by A. S. Poole, Justice of the Peace; to be assisted by Jno. C. Rodgers and J. B. Lofton, freeholders in said Ward.

For the Second Ward, polls will be opened at the City Hall, to be presided over by Joseph Willis, Justice of the Peace, to be assisted by Thos. C. Jackson and David Wallace, freeholders.

For the Third Ward, polls will be opened at the house of Robert Crawford, to be presided over by Wm. M. Butt, Justice of the Peace, to be assisted by E. Y. Clarke and Robert Crawford, freeholders.

For the Fourth Ward, polls will be opened at the Willingham Building, corner of Decatur and Ivy streets, to be presided over by A. A. Gaulding, Justice of the Peace, to be assisted by Thomas Newnan and Reuben Arnold, freeholders.

For the Fifth Ward polls will be opened at No. 1 Engine House, Broad street, to be presided over by Hiram Casey, Justice of the Peace, to be assisted by B. D. Smith and Alfred L. Fowler, freeholders.

The polls will be opened at 7 o'clock, A. M., and will be closed at 6 o'clock, P. M.

Under the late action of the Legislature voters will vote in the Wards in which they reside, for Mayor and Ten Aldermen—two for each Ward.

GEORGE T. FRY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Begs leave to inform the good people of Atlanta, and also those of Fulton, DeKalb and adjoining counties, that he has located his office in Ball's Building, East side of Whitehall street, in the said city of Atlanta, where he may be found and consulted upon business, every day (Sundays excepted) from 7 o'clock, A. M., to 6 o'clock, P. M. He will give diligent, careful, and prompt attention to all business confided to his care.

He will make a specialty of the following grades of business, to-wit: The collection of debts, settlement of all money demands, and of all demands growing out of contracts between man and man, all matters appertaining to, or growing out of, the Homestead Law.

Parties desiring to avail themselves of the benefits intended to be conferred by the Homestead Law, are respectfully invited to come to my office for any information they may desire concerning the said law. Also, will attend specially to all matters in Bankruptcy; and he begs leave to say to the unfortunate debtor, that the time wherein you will be allowed the full benefit of the Bankrupt Law, will expire on the first day of January, 1869; after that time you must pay fifty per centum of your indebtedness, or else you cannot have the benefit of the law, except by the consent of a majority, in number and value, of your creditors, which consent you will not be likely to obtain.—If you are in debt $300, or upwards, and feel that you cannot pay out, without subjecting yourself and family to great hardships and inconvenience, come to my office, and I will assist you to be relieved from all your distresses and embarrassments, by filing a petition for you for that purpose.

Be sure to make application before the 31st day of December, or else you will be too late! too late!

The citizens are specially invited to come to my office to consult me on any business they may desire to have attended to. They will always find me in my office, in a good humor, always glad to see you, and ready to give you a hearty, old-fashioned welcome, and will always be ready to attend to your business for you.

☞ Office over Alexander's Hardware and Braddeld's Drug Store, stairway running up between the two, on the same floor of the Southern and St. Louis Life Insurance offices.

Respectfully, GEO. T. FRY.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10, 1868.

Refers, by permission, to Gen. Wm. Terry, Wytheville, Va.; Gen. James A. Walker, Newbern, Va.; Hon. James S. Tipton, Judge of the 15th Judicial Circuit of Virginia, Hinesville, Va.; and Joseph Smith, Attorney at Law, Hillsville, Va. dec1 d1y.

EXCITING, PROMPT AND SUCCESSFUL REVOLUTION IN THE Boot and Shoe Business!
—BY—
M. O. MARKHAM,
Successor to HENRY BANKS, at the well known stand
EMPIRE BLOCK, WHITEHALL STREET,
ATLANTA, GEORGIA.

HAVING purchased the entire stock of Mr. BANKS (except such goods as did not come up to the highest standard for excellence) consisting of BOOTS, SHOES, LEATHER, SHOE FINDINGS, &c., &c., to which there is being added an immense supply of NEW MATERIAL, in quality the best and quantity without limit, fresh from the most celebrated manufactories in the land I, am fully prepared to offer superior inducements to buyers everywhere, as well as to the trade.

I call urgently upon everybody to come and examine my splendid stock. If it is possible to please, I can do it.

1868. DRY GOODS. 1868.
Fall and Winter Dry Goods.
JOHN M. GANNON,
(Corner WHITEHALL and HUNTER Streets,)

IS just in receipt of the following splendid line of Goods, which he has carefully selected, and will dispose of at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction:

DRESS GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION,

A great variety of Cloaks and Shawls; a splendid line of Blankets and Flannels; a full stock of Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, Breakfast Shawls, Nubias, Scarfs, Ladies' Under Vests, Gloves, Hoops and Balmoral Skirts, Irish Linens, Birds' Eye Diapers, Table Linen, Scotch Diaper, Crash, Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, English Tweeds, Satinets, Kentucky and North Carolina Jeans, Prints, Sheetings, Shirtings, Demins, Stripes, Tickings, Osnaburgs, Linseys, Drills, Checks and everything kept in a first class Dry Goods store.

ONE PRICE ONLY.

It affords me pleasure to be able to state that this system has been a complete success and gives general satisfaction to my customers. For the benefit of those who have not been in the habit of doing business with me, I state that there is only one price for every article sold in my store, so that there is no danger of any person being overcharged for goods under any circumstances—in other words—a child can purchase goods in my store as cheap as the closest Judge. I wish it distinctly understood that if any goods purchased in my establishment fail to come up to representation, they can be returned and the money will be refunded.

All consumers of dry goods are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere

A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY!
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid!
The Country is Waking up to its Merits!
What About It!

It will purify the most offensive atmosphere.
It will cleanse and cure Erysipelas, all sorts of sores, ulcers, boils, cuts, wounds, etc.
It will prevent gangrene.
It will cure burns, scalds, and bruises.
It is a perfect pain-killer.
It will destroy and neutralize all animal and vegetable poisons.
It will, therefore, cure stings or bites of insects.
It will cleanse and purify the breath, and hence is an excellent tooth-wash and healthful cosmetic.
It will cure diarrhea, even the worst chronic case.
It will instantly cure horses of the colic or persons of heartburn.
It will, owing to the bleaching properties of Chlorine, remove all ink spots, mildew, vegetable stains, &c.
It will cure Catarrh.
It will remove rancidity out of butter and lard.
It will, properly used, be more efficacious than any other agent in preventing the spread of contagious diseases, and has frequently done it.
It will, used in bathing, keep the skin healthy, soft and white.
We pledge whatever reputation we may have as honest, truthful gentlemen for the performance of all here claimed for the article and more too.
It is used everywhere by the medical profession as fast as it is introduced, and we respectfully refer to all prominent men of the profession, from very many of whom we have the highest testimonials of praise for the Fluid.
As a convenient article for constant family use it has no superior.
It has a beautiful color, and when the color is gone the virtues of the Fluid are lost. Hence be careful not to get the cork in the bottle of any animal or vegetable substance, and always keep the bottle stopped. After the Fluid has acted the residium is perfectly inert and harmless.
It is taken internally as well as applied externally.
It is cheap, selling only at 50 cents per bottle of half pint.

Everybody Uses it and Praises It! True Merit is the Foundation of its Success!!

Read Some of the Testimony!

Letter from Hon. Alex. A. Stephens, of Ga.]
CRAWFORDSVILLE, GA., 29th Sept. 1868.
Darby's Prophylactic Fluid is an article of little cost, but great value. Its domestic as well as medicinal uses are numerous, while its specialties are most wonderful. I have not been without it for ten years, and no head of a family who can afford to have it should be without it.
ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

Letter from Hon. A. J. Walker, Montgomery, Ala., Ex-Chief Justice Supreme Court of Ala.]
I have for many years used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid, and have found it exceedingly valuable—I recommend it to the public confidence as highly useful for the various purposes to which it is applied. A. J. WALKER.
Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 1868.

Letter from Rev. Jefferson Hamilton, D D., Mobile, Ala., Minister M. E. Church, South.]
My family have used Darby's Prophylactic Fluid for several years for various purposes, and esteem it very highly. Indeed, I know of no article within the whole range of Chemical preparations so generally and highly recommended by acquaintances as this. J. HAMILTON.
MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 23, 1868.

Letter from Prof. R. T. Brumby, Marietta, Ga.]
I was fifteen years Professor of Chemistry, &c., in the Univ. of Alabama, and eight years in the Univ. of S. C., and I am convinced that Prof. Darby's Prophylactic Fluid possesses all the merit he claims for it. It is very generally known and appreciated in all the Southern States, and is sold by nearly all Southern druggists.
R. T. BRUMBY.
MARIETTA, Ga., Oct. 1868.

From Rev. John Matthews, Pastor M. E. South, at Montgomery, Ala.]
MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 2?, 1868.
Darbys' Prophylactic Fluid is the only medicine kept in my family. We use it for almost everything—burns, bruises, stings, earache, sour stomach, &c., &c. My children, when hurt or bruised, always call at once for Darby's Fluid. We cannot get along well without it.
JOHN MATHEWS.

From W. O. Tuggle, Esq., Attorney at Law, La Grange, Ga.]
LAGRANGE, GA., Oct. 21, 1868.
I take pleasure in stating that I have found "Darby's Prophylactic Fluid to be an excellent remedy for cutaneous eruptions, chapped skin and bruises. It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant, and my wife states, for the benefit of young mothers, that "Darby's Fluid" is a valuable adjunct to the nursery. W. O. TUGGLE.

From J. H. Heustis, M. D., Mobile, Ala., Prof. Mobile Medical College.]
MOBILE, ALA., Oct. 19, 1868.
I have used your Chlorinated Fluid in Hospital and private practice for ten years, and know of nothing better for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, foul and indolent ulcers, and as a disinfectant. J. F. HEUSTIS, M. D.

These are but a few of the most recent testimonials received in behalf of the preparation.
It is as useful in winter as in summer, for its disinfecting quality is the least of its really valuable uses.
It is neatly put up in half pint bottles, and sells at 50 cents per bottle.
All Druggists keep it.

Cathleen with the Golden Hair.

BY JAMES KEENAN.

Beside the limpid brook we played,
In childhood's happy, happy hours,
Or through the dells and valleys strayed,
And gathered bright and beautiful flowers;
But ne'er grew flower in the dell,
That to my fancy seemed so fair,
As she my young heart loved so well,
Sweet Kathleen with the golden hair.

Beneath the green and spreading oak,
That by the little streamlet grew,
One eve our vows of love we spoke,
And, parting, promised to be true;
For I must sail o'er ocean wide,
A sailor's stormy life to dare,
To win a guerdon for my bride,
Sweet Kathleen with the golden hair.

I sailed afar o'er many seas,
In quiet calm and furious storm,
But still her voice spoke in the breeze,
My dreaming eyes beheld her form;
At length returned to meet my love,
My gathered wealth with her to share,
But the willows droop and grieve above
Lost Kathleen with the golden hair.

I sit again 'neath the old oak's shade,
And the moonlight falls on the limpid brook,
As it shone on the eve when our vows we made,
And a parting kiss from her lips I took,
For her light footstep I list once more,
But she ne'er again will meet me there;
She waits, I hope, by the heavenly shore,
Loved Kathleen with the golden hair.

HON. HENRY S. FITCH, U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR GEORGIA.—It was pleasant for us to hear from a friend who has recently returned from a trip to Savannah, on business, that the gentleman whose name heads this article intends, so soon as his family returns from Europe, to make our State his future, and permanent home. Mr. Fitch reached Georgia at a time, and under circumstances when, had he chosen, he might have made himself obnoxious to a people, just out of a terrific struggle. He so conducted his official duties, however, that while he scrupulously observed his obligations to the government and rigidly protected its interest, he was enabled so to direct affairs that "justice and equity" should be extended to all. Since, the Democratic party of Georgia showed its appreciation of his fairness, by sending him as one of its delegates at large to New York, and further by designating him as the candidate for Congress in the Savannah district. Mr. Fitch's ability as a lawyer is admitted by the able minds of the State, who have been arrayed against him. His personal popularity, is a matter that does not admit of dispute. Georgia extends a willing hand to such citizens.—Columbus Sun.

THE POLLARD ASSASSINATION—THE FACTS IN THE CASE.—We are informed that there was no elopement whatever; no gentleman in the case. The account given by members of the family of the affair upon which this article is supposed to be based is that Miss Grant wished to visit a young lady friend in Philadelphia, a daughter of her father's business correspondent in that city. Her parents withholding their permission, she accordingly made up her mind to go any way, and accordingly started on the steamer last Saturday week. The family made no attempt to go after her, knowing very well where she was; but on Monday Messrs. McDowell and Duncan, the business friends of Mr. Grant, telegraphed that the young lady was there, and had been taken suddenly ill. Young Mr. Grant and his mother went immediately to Philadelphia, and as soon as she was well enough to come home, which was on Friday, the whole party returned to Richmond.

Official Vote of Georgia.

The above table, claimed by the Era (Bullock's organ,) to be official, gives Seymour a majority of [illegible] over Grant in Georgia. This table embraces all the counties in the State.

THE CONSTITUTION,

DAILY AND WEEKLY,

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

BY CAREY W. STYLES & CO.

DAILY, PER ANNUM	$10 00
" SIX MONTHS	5 00
" ONE MONTH	1 00

WEEKLY, PER ANNUM	$3 00
" SIX MONTHS	1 50
" THREE MONTHS	1 00

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that their labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous readers.

Prophitt's Anti-Billious Pills.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are pre-disposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Billious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver which, in nine cases out of ten, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, etc., so common among our people, Earache, Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and bodily pains of every kind. See before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS

are the true grains and essence of health, and the latest gift that Science has given to the world.

FROM MEXICO TO ALASKA

The People know them!
The People use them!
The People praise them!

These pills grapple with disease at its fountainhead, and root it out of the patient's system, at once. They fortify the body against Disease in all forms of sudden attack and epidemics, and enable all to brave the miasmatic danger of swamps and forests. One of Dr. Maggiel's Pills relieves the entire system of pains and aches, enlivens the spirits and sends new blood

Bounding Through the Veins.

ONE MINUTE TO SAVE YOUR LIFE!

Take Disease in time and you will suffer less and be saved many days of useless misery.

What a hundred letters a day say from patients all over the habitable globe:—

Dr. Maggiel, your pill has rid me of all biliousness.

No more noxious doses for me in five or ten pills taken at one time. One of your pills cured me.

Thanks, Doctor. My headache has left me. Send me another box to keep in the house.

After suffering torture from bilious colic, two of your pills cured me, and I have no return of the malady.

Our doctors treated me for Chronic Constipation as they called it, and at last said I was incurable. Your Maggiel's Pills cured me.

I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me one.

Your pills are marvelous.

Send for another box, and keep them in the house.

Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic.

I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear young thing got well in a day.

My nausea of a morning is now cured.

Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some Salve behind my ears and the noises left.

Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family.

I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar.

Send me five boxes of your pills.

Let me have three boxes of your Salve and Pills by return mail.

Doctor, my burn has healed by your Salve.

For all Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of Urine, &c., &c.,

Maggiel's Pills are a perfect cure. One Pill will satisfy any one

NEWSPAPER FOR SALE!

THE ALBANY

TRI-WEEKLY NEWS

IS OFFERED FOR SALE!

FINDING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO RUN BOTH THE CONSTITUTION and the NEWS, without fatal neglect to one or the other, I propose to sell the latter.

The NEWS is in a flourishing condition, having a liberal Circulation, and as much Advertising Patronage as it can accommodate. It has yielded handsome profits since I purchased it in October last; and in practical hands, with vigorous editorial management, can be made the best paying paper in Georgia. There is a well appointed

Job Office Attached,

And the Job Work of the City will run the establishment if rightly managed.

There are two PRESSES, one of Hoe's Drum Cylinder, and one Washington Hand Press in good order, and material enough to run a Daily and Weekly. I will sell on liberal terms if application is made within Thirty Days.

Address CAREY W. STYLES,
CONSTITUTION OFFICE, Atlanta, Ga.
or STYLES & EVANS,
Albany, Ga.

The Press requested to notice.

SAVANNAH REPUBLICAN,

Daily and Weekly,

By J. R. SNEED.

THE undersigned is pleased to announce to his friends and the public that he has again come in possession of this time-honored journal, and expects to devote his entire time to making it, as a newspaper, second to none in the South. The liberal patronage of the past and better years, while the REPUBLICAN was under his charge, encourages him to hope that by prompt and continued support the public will enable him to carry this purpose into effect.

To the MERCHANTS of the South, and especially of his own State, he looks with confidence for a general support, promising them, in return, the best news, commercial and political journal that his experience and capabilities can produce.

The Weekly Republican,

Designed more especially for the planting community, and others who have not the privilege of a daily mail, will be found to contain all the news of the week condensed into a small compass, and by the close of the year we expect to issue it in a large and imperial sheet of eight pages, to contain more reading matter than any paper in the South.

TERMS:

Daily, One Year..........
" Six Months..........
" For a less time (per month)..........
Weekly per Year..........

N. B. Payment in advance for either edition will be required, without exception.

All letters should be addressed as below.
